S.T.A.G.E. to Present "A Geek Tragedy": S.T.A.G.E. student theatre announces its newest production, "A Geek Tragedy," to be held at St. Teresa Church (Kaczmarek Hall). Performances are at 7 p.m. on Jan. 19, 20, & 27, and at 2 p.m. on Jan. 21 & 28. Set in ancient Greece, the musical comedy follows Socraces and her three students (geeks), who believe there is only One True God. The journey of discovery, including mythological creatures and a Trojan Horse, has the geeks unraveling mysteries of faith while trying to save their mentor from certain peril. The cast is comprised of students ages 10-14 years. Tickets are available through our new online ticket service. To purchase and reserve your seating, visit www.stage4kids.com under Tickets. Tickets are $10 for adults and $8 for students. Recommended for ages 4 and up. "A Geek Tragedy" is an approximate 2-hour show with intermission and concessions.

GROUNDS MAINTENANCE: A new Diocesan Directive requests that a log be kept noting the date that snow is cleared or de-icer is applied. If you perform either of these tasks, or see that it has been done, please log the date on the 'Maintenance' sheet located on the bulletin board by the southwest exit to the parking lot.
